

Changes in the Management Team of Nanologica AB (publ)

Following the acquisition of Syntagon, Nanologica AB is changing its management team to better drive the company forward. After the change has been completed, the Group management team consists of CEO Nanologica Andreas Bhagwani, CEO Syntagon Annette Roos, and CFO Eva Osterman. The changes will take effect on 1 May 2026.

"The purpose of the change is to create an efficient management team for the Group, which now includes Syntagon," comments Nanologica's CEO Andreas Bhagwani.

Nanologica is undergoing a transformation phase after stabilizing the large-scale silica production and following the acquisition of Syntagon. The focus going forward is mainly on increasing sales in the two operating companies with the aim of taking the Group to profitability.

About Nanologica AB (publ)

Nanologica is a Swedish life science tools company that develops, manufactures, and sells advanced consumables to pharmaceutical manufacturers. Nanologica's products are specially developed for the purification of peptide drugs, such as insulin and GLP-1 analogues. Due to effective purification and a long lifetime for the products, they can increase productivity and reduce costs for pharmaceutical manufacturers. Nanologica operates in a global niche market that is growing as a result of increased demand for drugs for the treatment of diabetes and obesity. The Group also includes Syntagon, a contract manufacturer of drug molecules for both clinical studies and commercial delivery. Syntagon works with chemical engineering manufacturing and the development of processes and analyses of pharmaceutical raw materials, with a core competence in small molecules and peptides, and a particular strength in purification and analysis of complex compounds. The Group is headquartered in Södertälje and Nanologica's share (NICA) is listed for trading on Nasdaq Stockholm Main Market. For further information, please visit www.nanologica.com.
