

Johan Dufvenmark appointed as new CFO of Beijer Alma

Johan Dufvenmark has been appointed as the new CFO of Beijer Alma. Bringing extensive experience from international industry, he will join the Group from Northvolt and previously Gränges.

Johan Dufvenmark will take office as CFO 1st June 2022. He is 48 years old and holds a master's degree in business administration from the University of Gothenburg. He most recently served as Senior Director, Group Treasury at Northvolt. Prior to that, he held the position of Vice President, Group Treasury & Investor relations, at Gränges.

"We are delighted to welcome Johan Dufvenmark to Beijer Alma. The Group will continue its journey of growth, both organically and through acquisitions. With his solid background, Johan is the right person to support this work. He has extensive experience from international industry in a listed environment," says Beijer Alma's President and CEO, Henrik Perbeck.

"Beijer Alma is an exciting group with a long track record of value creation. I am happy and proud to take on the role as CFO. I look forward to driving the Group's development together with my new colleagues," says Johan Dufvenmark.
