

Folklistan visits Haypp Group's warehouse to present their seventh priority for the EU election

Folklistan's top candidate Jan Emanuel will come to Haypp Group's subsidiary Snusbolaget's warehouse on 7 May at 13:00 to present its seventh priority for this summer's EU elections.

On 7 May, Folklistan's top candidate Jan Emanuel will visit the warehouse of Haypp Group's subsidiary Snusbolaget. The warehouse serves over 600,000 customers annually with alternative nicotine products, throughout Europe. On site, Folklistan will present their seventh priority on their programme for this summer's EU elections.

Haypp Group's European subsidiaries have called on all European candidates for the European Parliament to present their proposals to reduce smoking-related deaths.
