ProfilGruppen gives notice of termination of 25 employees

ProfilGruppen continues to adapt costs to the current uncertain economic situation and as part of this, announces today the dismissal of 25 employees.

Negotiations with the trade unions will start as soon as possible.

ProfilGruppen's president and CEO, Fredrik Zöögling, comments:

"We need to adapt to the prevailing uncertainty, which unfortunately has sad consequences.

We will continue to maintain a good level of service to our customers and be responsive to how needs change over time and how we need to adapt."
