Tången's CFO leaves the company

Tången Industrikapital AB (publ) announces that Per Andersson will, at his own request, leave his position as CFO at Tången. Elin Johansson, currently group controller at Tången, has been appointed interim CFO for the time being. This ensures continuity and continued good development of Tången. Per Andersson will remain in his role until the end of November to ensure a smooth handover.

"We are grateful for Per's efforts during a period when Tången has developed significantly and gone from a private to a publicly listed company. We thank him for this time and wish him all the best going forward", says Nina Bergman, CEO.

The process of recruiting a new CFO has begun. The company intends to provide information about successors as soon as the recruitment process is completed.
