Therma Industri and Francks Kylindustri strengthen the position in Western Norway through the acquisition of Florø Kjølleservice

Francks Kylindustri and Therma Industri continues the expansion in Norway through the acquisition of Florø Kjølleservice. Founded in 1987 and headquartered in Eikefjord, Florø Kjølleservice specialises in installation and service of cooling systems and heat pumps. The current owners will remain operational in the company.

“We are excited that Florø Kjølleservice has chosen to join Therma Industri. Florø Kjølleservice has over the years demonstrated its ability to provide high quality installations and service, especially within aquaculture leveraging their strong marine experience. The acquisition strengthens our position in Western Norway and capabilities in the area.” says Per Christian Sandved, CEO of Therma Industri.

“We are looking forward to becoming a part of Therma and to leverage our joint base of expertise, experience, and synergies to accelerate our growth in the expansive region of Western Norway. This joint competency will benefit our customers and increase our value offering” says Benjamin Tonheim and Kjetil Valvik, owners of Florø Kjølleservice.

Francks Kylindustri is the leading Nordic industrial and commercial cooling specialist with 45+ offices and ~600 employees across Sweden, Norway and Denmark.
