SdipTech acquires Danish company Wintex Agro

SdipTech AB (publ) has acquired all shares in Wintex Agro ApS, a leading manufacturer of automatic soil samplers for the agricultural sector. The company has an annual operating profit of approximately DKK 5 million.

Founded in 1999, Wintex is a leading provider of precision soil sampling solutions for sustainable agriculture. As global food security challenges intensify, precise soil data becomes crucial for informed nutrient management and optimized crop production. Wintex's innovative products empower farmers worldwide to analyze soil health, maximize yields, and minimize environmental impact.

Wintex's commitment to quality, customer satisfaction, and innovation has been key to its success. The global market for soil sampling technology is growing steadily, driven by increasing demand for more crop yields, optimized fertilizer use, and sustainable agricultural practices.

"We are thrilled to bring Wintex into the SdipTech family. Their innovative soil sampling solutions are crucial for advancing precision farming and supporting more sustainable agricultural practices. A strong global presence and commitment to high-quality products reflect their leadership and ongoing contributions to the industry", says Sarah Ström, Business Unit Manager, Resource efficiency.

"We are very excited about joining the SdipTech, whose resources and strategic support will allow us to accelerate our growth and continue being innovating for our customers. I am confident that the partnership with SdipTech will lead to an even greater success for our team, as well as enhance the value for our customers", says Torben Vinther, Founder and CEO of Wintex Agro.

Wintex is SdipTech's third company in Denmark, and the company aligns perfect with SdipTech's vision of contributing to creating more sustainable, efficient and safe societies. As of December, Wintex will be integrated into SdipTech's Resource Efficiency business area.
