Goodbye Kansas Studios wins VFX-order from recurring customer

Goodbye Kansas Studios has received a new order to produce visual effects ("VFX") for a well-known TV-series and the order value amounts to SEK 6 million. Production will commence during the fourth quarter of 2021 and will be completed in the first quarter of 2022. The order comes from a recurring global customer and Goodbye Kansas Studios has previously delivered VFX for prior seasons of this well-known TV-series.

"It is pleasing to see that Goodbye Kansas Studios has been rewarded with a new order for its hard work delivering VFX for prior seasons of this TV-series. This shows our ability to deliver high quality services and strengthen our customers' confidence in us," says Peter Levin, CEO of Goodbye Kansas Group.
