

Karnell Group AB (publ) appoints Niklas Svensson as Chief Financial Officer

Karnell Group AB (publ) has appointed Niklas Svensson as Chief Financial Officer (CFO). He will assume the position on 21 January 2026 and become part of Karnell's executive management team, reporting to CEO Petter Moldenius.

Niklas Svensson joins Karnell from Alcadon Group AB (publ), where he has served as CFO since 2019. He brings extensive experience from listed industrial and technology-oriented companies, with a strong background in financial control, M&A, and growth management.

Prior to Alcadon, Niklas held senior finance positions at NVBS Group and Sievert AB, and began his career at Deloitte, where he worked for several years, ultimately as audit manager. His combination of audit experience, operational leadership and hands-on understanding of industrial businesses makes him a strong addition to Karnell's team as the Group continues to expand its industrial platform across Northern Europe.

"Niklas combines strong financial expertise with practical experience from growth companies and M&A in the industrial technology sector. His background from both listed environments and entrepreneurial organizations will be valuable as we continue to build a scalable and high-performing finance function across the group", says Petter Moldenius, CEO of Karnell Group AB (publ).

"I am very pleased to join Karnell at an exciting phase of its growth journey. The Group has built a strong platform with clear strategic focus, and I look forward to contributing with my experience as we continue to scale Karnell across Northern Europe", says Niklas Svensson.
