

Magnus Fredin takes over as CEO of Resurs Bank 13 November

On June 27, it was announced that Magnus Fredin was appointed CEO of Resurs Bank and Resurs Holding. On November 13, he takes office.

Magnus Fredin has significant experience in conducting change work in the financial sector, retail and the automotive industry, and comes most recently from the role of Head of Direct Sales at Volvo Cars.

– During the summer and autumn I have been looking forward to taking on the role of CEO and it will now be very exciting to take on the role fully, says Magnus Fredin.

In his role as board member, Magnus has had the opportunity to follow Resurs closely. He leaves his position as a board member at the same time as he now takes over as CEO.

Resurs CFO Sofie Tarring has held the role of acting CEO of Resurs Holding and CEO of Resurs Bank since 1 August, and in connection with Magnus Fredin taking office, she returns to her regular role as CFO.

ABOUT RESURS

Resurs is a leading bank in the Nordics with a simple philosophy: we want to create balance in people's personal finances. On that foundation, we develop offers and services within loans, savings and payments for retail and e-commerce that are based on people's everyday lives, and that will create long-term value for our customers and for society. Today, we have a customer base of slightly more than 6 million customers and 662 employees in the Nordic region.
