

Gilles Lafleuriel appointed Chief Financial Officer at Ingrid

Ingrid announces the appointment of Gilles Lafleuriel as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and member of the Executive Management team, effective October 1st, 2026. With extensive experience from leading roles in infrastructure investment and asset management, he will play a key role in executing Ingrid's European growth strategy.

Gilles Lafleuriel brings more than 20 years of experience across finance, infrastructure and the energy sector. Most recently, he served as Partner and Head of Sweden at Obligo, where he worked extensively with investments in sustainable infrastructure. Prior to this, he held senior roles at Nordea Asset Management and Infranode, leading investments in real assets and infrastructure.

"We are excited to welcome Gilles to the team. As Ingrid is growing across Europe, our financial strategy and capital allocation is key to our continued success. Gilles brings a great combination of financial expertise, and deep understanding of energy infrastructure, which will be critical as we scale our platform and work towards a more resilient and intelligent energy system," says Axel Holmberg, CEO of Ingrid.

"I am thrilled to join Ingrid at a transformative moment for both the company and the industry. As a Nordic leader in critical energy infrastructure, Ingrid is uniquely positioned to build a better European energy system. I look forward to bringing my experience to the team and contribute to Ingrid's continued growth journey," says Gilles Lafleuriel.

CONTACT

For general/press inquiries:

Frida Nordström

frida.nordstrom@ingridcapacity.com

Image Attachments

Press Photo \(1\)