

Goobit Announces Strategic Partnership with BitGo

Goobit AB ("Goobit"), Sweden's first Bitcoin company and operator of BTCX since 2011, announces a new strategic partnership with BitGo Europe GmbH, the digital asset infrastructure company. The partnership supports Goobit's operations by providing trusted, industry-leading infrastructure that aligns with the company's long-term Bitcoin strategy and commitment to building robust, secure and future-proof services.

For further information, please contact:

Christian Ander, CEO

Email: ir@goobit.se

About Goobit

Goobit is Sweden's leading bitcoin company in financial service. The Group offers exchange services from fiat currencies to bitcoin. Its most well-known brands are BTCX Express, Standard Bitcoin Exchange (BTCX), and Bitcoin Treasury. In addition to exchange services, the Group also offers anti-money laundering (AML) services through AML Desk, as well as compliance services for crypto assets. Goobit Group AB (publ) was registered in 2013 and is a group consisting of the wholly owned subsidiaries Goobit AB and Goobit Blocktech AB. Goobit AB targets private individuals, corporate clients, and financial institutions. The group is headquartered in Stockholm, Sweden.

For more information, please visit Goobit's website at goobit.se.

Attachments

Goobit Announces Strategic Partnership with BitGo