

W5 Solutions Secures FMV-Order Worth SEK 48 Million, With Option for Additional SEK 35 million

W5 Solutions' business area Training receives an additional order from the Swedish Defence Materiel Administration (FMV) for advanced live fire training systems to the Swedish Armed Forces. The new order, valued at SEK 48 million, will be delivered in 2025 and includes an option worth SEK 35 million for delivery in 2026. This is an addition of the previously communicated order worth SEK 20 million, announced on 16 May 2025.

This order strengthens the long-standing partnership between W5 Solutions, FMV, and the Swedish Armed Forces. By expanding the original scope, FMV continues to invest in scalable, high-performance training solutions that support everything from fundamental shooting exercises to complex tactical scenarios. The systems enable faster, safer, and more effective training, enhancing readiness and performance at all levels.

"This additional order confirms our strategic role as a trusted partner to FMV and the Swedish Armed Forces. We are proud to continue delivering innovative, high-quality training solutions that contribute to strengthening Sweden's defence capabilities," says Evelina Hedskog, President and CEO of W5 Solutions.
