Envipco: Statement on Greek distributor

Amersfoort, The Netherlands - 26 November 2026: As reported in the press, the European Public Prosecutor's Office (EPPO) is conducting an investigation into recycling kiosks sold by Texan in 2020 to Greek municipalities. Texan is Envipco's distributor in the Greek market with Envipco selling RVMs and parts to Texan.

Envipco Hellas was today visited by Greek authorities as part of the ongoing EPPO investigation. Envipco has no reason to believe it is a target of the investigation by EPPO and is fully cooperating with the authorities.

Envipco will keep the market informed of any material developments.
