

W5 Solutions receives SEK 56 million order for simulators from a UK customer

W5 Solutions' business area Power secures a SEK 56 million export order from the United Kingdom for simulator hardware systems. The systems enable safe, cost-effective training. Design, manufacturing and delivery take place between 2025 and 2028.

W5 Solutions has decades of experience in advanced military simulation, with a history of delivering simulators for land and air-based platforms dating back to the 1960s. In this project, W5 Solutions provides turnkey loader drill trainer systems focused on realistic and repeatable loading procedures.

"This order marks another important step in our international growth strategy," says Evelina Hedskog, President and CEO of W5 Solutions. "It demonstrates the market's confidence in our capabilities and highlights the growing demand for dependable simulator systems among modern defence forces."
