

Astor Group receives an order worth approximately 35 MSEK within Astor Protect

Scandinavian Astor Group AB (publ) ("Astor Group" or the "Company") has, through a company within the Astor Protect business area, received an order worth approximately SEK 35 million from an international customer in the western world. The order involves the delivery of defense supplies and is scheduled to be fulfilled during the second half of 2026.

"This order is clear proof of our competitiveness and our ability to deliver in a sector where demand is high. It is also the result of the long-term efforts being made at Astor Protect," says Martin Elovsson, CEO of Astor Group.

Due to the nature of the industry and circumstances relating to customers and national security interests, no further information regarding this matter or the customer will be disclosed.
