

NOTE grows in Medtech through strengthened partnership with global company

NOTE has strengthened its partnership with one of its long-standing customers, an industry leading company that is involved in the development of advanced medical devices.

NOTE is committed to providing EMS services for a range of new medical products within the customer's extensive product portfolio. Production for these new products will take place at NOTE's advanced facility in Norrtälje, Sweden. This strengthened partnership is estimated to increase sales by SEK 50 million annually, starting from Q1 2024.

"We have seen significant development in our business across various markets. The basis to this success has been our commitment to upholding high-quality and delivery standards. It is always gratifying to earn trust and secure new business from our existing customers. We are excited about what the future holds and look forward to strengthening the collaboration with this customer", says Johannes Lind-Widestam, CEO and President.
