

SEKE signs an agreement with E.ON worth a total of SEK 100 million

Netel's subsidiary SEKE has signed an agreement with the energy group E.ON for the reconstruction of two power stations in Sweden. The agreements are valued at approximately SEK 100 million in total and the projects are to be completed in 2025.

The power stations are located in Stjärneholm in Skurup and in Jämjö in Karlskrona. E.ON Sweden is part of the international energy group E.ON SE with headquarters in Essen, Germany. E.ON Sweden delivers electricity, heating and smart energy solutions to approximately one million private and business customers in Sweden.

"The new agreements once again confirm SEKE's know-how and experience in turnkey contracts in the power sector," says Jeanette Reuterskiöld, Acting CEO of Netel. "We are happy and proud of our long-term relationship with E.ON and with the agreements we continue to strengthen our leading position in critical infrastructure."
