

Goobit AB partners with Scrive for BankID

Goobit Group AB (publ) is actively preparing for the implementation of the European Union's MiCA crypto-assets regulation, coming into effect in 2024. Its subsidiary, Goobit AB ('Goobit'), will integrate pan-European identification methods to enable safe and seamless onboarding of new customers with the highest Know-Your-Customer ("KYC") standards.

Goobit is pleased to announce that the company entered an agreement with Scrive, a leading KYC provider in the Nordics, to enable Swedish customers with its new Know-Your-Customer methods. The partnership is set to go live in the coming days.

"The partnership with Scrive will improve the quality of the service as well as making the process of customer identification more efficient and lowering the overall cost. This aligns with our planned European strategy, being able to have robust KYC measures all over Europe," says Goobit Group's CEO and founder, Christian Ander

"With Scrive's technology being built on a foundation of trust, security and blockchain, we see a partnership like this one with Goobit as a perfect fit. Using our ID verification and KYC solutions to create a safe space for both Goobit and their customers is an exciting opportunity and a great step forward in our ongoing engagement with the industry." Says Scrive's CEO, Viktor Wrede.

Goobit's commitment to compliance remains a top priority, ensuring all operations adhere to the highest international standards. By leveraging Scrive's expertise, Goobit reinforces its dedication to regulatory adherence, ensuring a compliant and secure environment for all stakeholders.
