

Attendo has completed the acquisition of Skåningegård

Attendo announced in June 2026 that it had entered into an agreement to acquire Skåningegård-gruppen AB ("Skåningegård"). Through the acquisition, Attendo strengthens its position within care for people with disability, social care services and residential care for elderly people in southern Sweden. The transaction has now been completed.

The acquisition is in line with Attendo's strategy for balanced growth, where stable underlying organic growth is complemented by bolt-on acquisitions of high-quality companies in strategic segments.

Skåningegård is a family-owned care provider consisting of nine care units located in Östergötland, Kalmar, Kronoberg and Gotland. The company is associated with its long-term focus on high quality, continuity and individually tailored care. Through the acquisition, Attendo further strengthens its presence in southern Sweden and creates an additional platform for continued development together with employees, municipalities and care recipients.

"We are pleased to welcome the employees of Skåningegård to Attendo. Together, we will continue to develop the operations while maintaining the same high quality and keeping the quality of life of our care recipients in our focus. By combining our experience and strengths, we can create even better conditions for a safe and personalized care," says Malin Fredgardh Huber, Managing Director, Attendo Scandinavia.
