

Paxman publishes newsletter on the world's first Scalp Cooling Summit in May

Today, Paxman publishes the March issue of its newsletter aimed at shareholders, investors and other interested parties.

This month's issue highlights that Paxman will be hosting the first ever Scalp Cooling Summit, where innovative leaders in the industry come together to talk all things scalp cooling, on 5 May 2022. This international, digitally hosted event will include a series of talks, keynote discussions and live dialogue, where world experts will share the challenges they face in side effect management, alongside their experiences and the solutions they have developed. Institutions represented in the speaker list include Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, New York, USA; Tata Memorial Hospital, Mumbai, India; Dana Farber Cancer Institute, Boston, USA; Seattle Cancer Care Alliance, Washington, USA; Kyoto University, Japan.

The newsletter also includes information on Paxman's continued partnership with the US non-profit organisation Living Beyond Breast Cancer, the second episode of the Changing the Face of Cancer podcast with a focus on hair regrowth, as well as multiple US orders for five states, UK orders for existing customers and international orders to Belgium, France, Italy, the Netherlands, Sweden and Japan.

About Us

The Paxman Scalp Cooling System has been developed by the Paxman family to reduce hair loss in breast cancer patients undergoing chemotherapy. The concept behind the system came when the mother of four, Sue Paxman, experienced first-hand the trauma of chemotherapy-induced hair loss. With close to 4,000 systems delivered in to hospitals, clinics and treatment centres around the world, PAXMAN is the leading supplier of Scalp Cooling technology. PAXMAN's scalp-cooling cap is made from lightweight, biocompatible silicone that is soft and flexible, providing a snug yet comfortable fit during treatment. PAXMAN AB (publ) has its headquarters in Karlshamn (Sweden), with subsidiaries in Huddersfield (UK) and Houston, Texas (US).

The PAXMAN share is listed on Nasdaq First North Growth Market. FNCA Sweden AB is the company's Certified Adviser and can be contacted via info@fnca.se and +46 (0)8 528 003 99.
