The Court of Appeal grants leave to appeal for Humana Assistans AB's appeal of the District Court's decision to reject the damage claim against the state

On 25 June 2026, Humana Assistans decided to appeal the District Court's decision to reject Humana Assistans's damage claim against the state. The Court of Appeal has today, August 14, 2026, decided to grant leave to appeal for Humana's appeal.

The leave to appeal means that the merits of the case will be examined in the Court of Appeal.

At present, Humana Assistans has no information about when the Court of Appeal's decision on the issue of damages will be decided.
