

BIMObject celebrates 4M user registrations

BIMObject proudly announces attaining yet another important milestone: surpassing 4M cumulatively registered users the 12th of August of 2023, 17 months after having reached 3M registered users. This accomplishment indicates BIMObject's unwavering dedication to driving digitalization and sustainability in the construction industry.

BIMObject is at the forefront of reshaping the way the construction sector operates. We provide a global marketplace where thousands of manufacturers and millions of users can connect to power faster, smarter and greener digital building designs around the world. The platform has over +130k product pages live with +750k files hosted on them.

"We are extremely happy and humbled to be able to maintain a sustained and strong growth momentum on our platform and for us as a company to pass another important milestone in our mission of strengthening our position as a world-leading provider of building product information preferred by architects, engineers, contractors, and property owners" comments Martin Lindh, CEO of BIMObject.

"This is a great achievement by the team. It validates our effort and dedication in putting the users first and our focus on helping them in their daily work. I'm very proud of the Product Development department and all the hard work across the organisation that has gone into this." comments Stina Larsson, BIMObject's Chief Technology Officer.
