Beijer Alma's subsidiary Beijer Tech acquires Kompotek

Beijer Tech has today, November 16th, 2026, acquired the majority of the shares in Kompotek Sverige AB, a Swedish supplier of valves and valve automation solutions.

Kompotek is a Swedish supplier of valves, valve automation solutions and other valve accessories. With a strong position in district heating, HVAC and industrial applications, the company offers its customers an end-to-end product range, a high degree of flexibility and customer-focused service. Kompotek has seven employees and revenue of about SEK 45 million with good profitability. For further information, please visit the company's website: www.kompotek.se.

The acquisition is in line with Beijer Alma's model for value-adding acquisitions and Beijer Tech's strategy of acquiring profitable companies in attractive niches with good growth potential and high value-add.

Fredrik Karlsson, Business Area Manager Beijer Tech, comments on the transaction: "Kompotek is a well-managed and niche company with strong expertise in valves and valve automation as well as long-standing customer relationships in attractive segments. The acquisition strengthens our offering in Fluid Technology and provides us with a strong platform for continued growth together with Hans and the team at Kompotek. We welcome the company, its employees and its business partners to Beijer Tech."

The company's previous principal owner and CEO, Hans Martin, will continue in his role and as a minority owner. Hans also commented on the transaction: "We are proud of the position Kompotek has established over the years, with strong customer relationships, a high level of technical expertise and close collaborations with our suppliers. Beijer Tech is a long-term owner that understands our operations and can help us take the next step in the company's journey. I look forward to continuing to lead Kompotek together with our team while also leveraging the opportunities that come with being part of the broader Beijer Tech organization."

Through the transaction, Beijer Tech will acquire the majority of the shares in Kompotek Sverige AB with closing taking place today. The company will be part of Beijer Tech's Fluid Technology business area. The acquisition is expected to have a marginally positive impact on Beijer Alma's earnings per share.
