

INVISIO appoints new executive management team member

INVISIO is strengthening its executive management team with the appointment of Vibeke Lillie Gadsbøll as Vice President, Global Quality Management. She will assume her role on September 15, 2025.

Gadsbøll will be responsible for the company's global quality activities and will report to CEO Lars Højgård Hansen.

She brings 15 years of operational and strategic leadership experience in quality assurance from medical technology and pharmaceutical companies, including Danish firms Ambu and Novo Nordisk Pharmatech.

INVISIO CEO Lars Højgård Hansen commented: "INVISIO develops globally market-leading products whose advanced technology means that quality is not just part of the process, but is the very cornerstone for our continued growth and success. In light of this, and against the background of our ongoing intensive product development, Vibeke's addition to the executive management team represents a natural step."
