

Fram Skandinavien AB (publ) changes reporting language to English

As of the Q3 report 2022 that will be published on the 3rd of November, Fram Skandinavien AB (publ) will shift from reporting primarily in Swedish to reporting solely in English in order to avoid double work that diverts valuable time away from the core investment and company building work.

In line with Nasdaq regulations, this change of reporting language will encompass all company communications and reporting except for the annual report, which due to local Swedish regulatory requirements still needs to be published in Swedish and English.
