

Inteas CFO leaves the company for new challenges

Inteas's CFO, Eva Bång, has today announced that she intends to leave the company for new challenges.

Since taking up the position as CFO in December 2020, Eva has been a vital part of developing Inteas's financial work and preparing the company for a possible IPO. Eva will remain in her role as CFO until she steps down in December 2022.

"We thank Eva for her time at Inteas and wish her great luck with her future career. A recruitment process to find a replacement for Eva has been initiated", says Henrik Lindekrantz, CEO of Inteas.
