

Albert founders Arta Mandegari and Salman Eskandari named Social Entrepreneur of the Year 2022

Albert and its founders have been awarded the prestigious Social Entrepreneur of the Year award at the national final of EY Entrepreneur of the Year. Arta Mandegari and Salman Eskandari are the third recipients of this honour.

Arta Mandegari and Salman Eskandari, founders of Albert, said: "We are extremely happy and proud to have received this award. We started Albert with a clear vision of democratizing knowledge through technology and lowering the thresholds for each child to learn in their own way. We are proud of the development since the start where Albert has been able to help over 300,000 families in Europe with personal and digital learning, and see great opportunities for continued growth. We also hope that through Albert we can inspire others to both run a successful business and drive social development."

Sweden's foremost social entrepreneur was awarded by EY. The criterion was that the entrepreneurs should have founded a company that has a core business that contributes to a better society.
