TRADING IN THE CLASS B SHARES OF COFFEE STAIN ON NASDAQ FIRST NORTH PREMIER GROWTH MARKET COMMENCES TODAY

The class B shares in Coffee Stain Group AB (publ) ("Coffee Stain") begin trading today on Nasdaq First North Premier Growth Market in Stockholm under ticker symbol COFFEE B.

"Today is a big step for Coffee Stain, leaving the Embracer group and becoming our own public listed company. We've always believed in the power of small, passionate teams building games in their own way – with creativity, trust, and a lot of heart! Spinning off will give us the freedom to lean even harder into that mindset.

We put a ton of passion and ambition into what we do and we always put the games first. Somewhere in that special mix of dedication, and culture, the magic has been created. Looking ahead, we will do everything we can in order to protecting our values and ways of working.

Our years within Embracer helped us grow, learn, and reach new goals, and we're genuinely grateful for the support we have been given. Now we take everything we've built and carry it forward with a renewed sense of focus. The next chapter is about keep taking smart risks while developing games we truly believe in.

In the end it's all about making good games, and that's what we will keep doing!" - Says Anton Westbergh, CEO and Co-founder of Coffee Stain.
