Marco Rizzardo appointed as Vice President, R&D and a member of the Leadership Team of Revenio Group

Revenio Group Corporation, Stock exchange release, October 2, 2023, at 9.00 a.m. (EEST)

Marco Rizzardo (b. 1971) has been appointed Revenio's Vice President R&D, and a member of the Leadership Team. Rizzardo will start in his position no later than January 8, 2024. Marco Rizzardo will be responsible for the research and development of Revenio Group's ophthalmological devices and software solutions throughout their entire life cycle.

"During the past years, Revenio has gone through an evolution from a device supplier to a global leader in eye diagnostics solutions. I am very pleased to welcome a top talent like Marco Rizzardo to our team. Our product portfolio is competitive in terms of intraocular pressure measuring devices, retinal imaging devices, and retinal screening solutions utilizing AI. In addition, we continue to invest significantly in research and development to launch new products and solution innovations to the market. Marco has a significant role in driving our research and development activities forward in line with our strategy", says Jouni Toijala, CEO of Revenio.

Marco Rizzardo has more than 20 years of experience in research and development of advanced medical technologies such as surgical robotics and digital solutions in leading roles of global companies. He has most recently worked as Technical Director in Alifax Srl, Italy and before that as Head of Medical Software in Cambridge Consultants Ltd, Great Britain.

"I am very excited to join Revenio and the opportunity to continue bringing innovative products and solutions to the market with Revenio's talented team", says Marco Rizzardo

As previously announced, Marco Rizzardo's predecessor, Giuliano Barbaro, who successfully led the R&D function, moved on to cancer research at the end of June 2023.

The resume of Marco Rizzardo is attached to this announcement.
