

Hilbert Group Announces CFO Transition

Hilbert Group AB (Nasdaq Stockholm: HILB B), a leading investment firm focused on bridging traditional and digital assets, today announced that Sylvana Sciberras will be stepping down from her role as Chief Financial Officer after several years with the company.

Sylvana joined Hilbert five years ago, prior to its listing, and has played an important role in the company's development from its early stages through its evolution into a publicly listed group.

Niclas Sandström, Co-Founder of Hilbert Group, commented:

"Sylvana has been part of Hilbert since the early days and has contributed throughout an important phase of the company's development. On behalf of the company, I would like to thank her for her efforts and dedication over the years and wish her all the best in her future endeavours."

Sylvana Sciberras commented:

"It has been an adventurous and educational journey to be part of Hilbert's development over these years in my role as the CFO. I would like to thank my colleagues, partners, and shareholders for their support and collaboration throughout this period and I wish the company continued success going forward."

The process to recruit a new Chief Financial Officer has been initiated. Hilbert Group thanks Sylvana for her contribution and wishes her all the best in the next chapter of her career.
