

Thule Group AB (publ) appoints new Chief Financial Officer

Toby Lawton has been appointed Chief Financial Officer, CFO, and member of Group Management in Thule Group, based out of the Group Headquarters in Malmö, Sweden.

Toby Lawton brings almost three decades of relevant international finance experience, including as CFO of three publicly listed international companies in Sweden and Hong Kong. Following graduation from Oxford University, Toby spent over 25 years with SCA (including now separately listed Essity) in several roles including CFO of Asia Pacific, Vice President of M&A, and CFO of SCA. He has also been CFO of Vinda International, based in Hong Kong, and is currently CFO of Swedish company Renewcell.

“I am happy to welcome a proven international finance executive of Toby’s caliber to Thule Group”, says Mattias Ankarberg, incoming CEO and President of Thule Group. “His extensive experience is a strong addition to the management team, and his leadership style and passion for an active life is also a good fit with the Thule culture.”

Toby Lawton will assume his position latest in January 2024.
