

ZignSec signs customer agreement with the fast-growing cryptocurrency broker hi

ZignSec has signed an agreement with hi, a rapidly growing cryptocurrency broker established in 2020. The agreement enables hi.com to benefit from ZignSec's KYC and AML solutions to optimise and improve their customer onboarding experience. The solutions will be deployed globally and serve over 3.5 million users.

As part of this collaboration, ZignSec will be hi's exclusive platform for KYC and AML for their onboarding and will expand to include monitoring solutions in the near future.

"We are happy to partner with hi, one of the up-and-coming players in the cryptocurrency space. This collaboration not only demonstrates the trust and value our KYC and AML solutions offers to global markets, but also strengthens our commitment to enhancing security and compliance in the dynamic regulatory environment." – Glenn Mac Donald, CEO, ZignSec

"By partnering with ZignSec, we are streamlining the onboarding without compromising compliance or security. Through extensive testing, we've found that ZignSec's solutions not only enhance our KYC process but also match our goals of combating fraud and delivering an enhanced onboarding process, aligning with our global market needs." – Chief Operating Officer, hi
