

CEO change for Doro AB

Carl-Johan Zetterberg Boudrie, CEO of Doro AB (publ) (“Doro”) since 2019, is leaving Doro and will continue as President and CEO in Careium AB, which is separately listed by Doro. Doro appoints Jörgen Nilsson as new President and CEO of Doro.

“Carl-Johan has successfully led the company through the transformation we have undergone, and we are very grateful for his efforts during this phase. Now Jörgen is taking over and with his experience of product development, marketing and sales in an international environment, he has the right experience to successfully lead and develop the company further,” says Henri Österlund, Chairman of the Board of Doro.

At the same time, a management team for Doro is appointed with Isabelle Senges as the new CFO of Doro.

“Today we begin a new phase for the Group with a focus on Doro's consumer products and services for seniors. It will be exciting to build on the strong foundation that exists and to use all employees' deep knowledge and experience together to take Doro to the next level, says Jörgen Nilsson. I feel honoured and humble for the opportunity to continue to develop the company further”, concludes Jörgen Nilsson, new CEO of Doro.

For more information, please contact:

Jörgen Nilsson, President & CEO, +46 731 01 28 01, ir@doro.com

About Doro

Doro is a leading technology brand for seniors developing consumer products and services to support an active and independent life. By using technology, Doro enable generations to connect digitally – both while at home and when out and about. Doro is a Swedish company listed on Stockholm Nasdaq Stock Exchange. The company is headquartered in Malmö and has sales operations in 27 countries. In 2020, Doro's Consumer operations had 87 employees and net sales amounted to SEK 1,165 million (EUR 116.5 million), making it the European market leader for senior specialized mobile phones. Read more about Doro on our website www.doro.com/

Attachments

CEO change for Doro AB