New date: Trelleborg's Capital Markets Day May 23, 2023

Trelleborg Group has decided to postpone this year's Capital Markets Day from March 21 to May 23, 2023. The reason for this is that the divestment of Group's tire operation is not yet finalized. It is in its final stage and is expected to be finalized during the first half of 2023, as previously communicated. At the Capital Markets Day, Trelleborg wants to be able to give updated information about Trelleborg's strategy and financial data, showing Group's situation after the divestment of the tire operation.

Institutional investors, analysts and media are welcome to participate either physically at the IVA Konferenscenter in Stockholm, Sweden, or digitally.

Program (Central European Time)

- 12:00 pm Registration and light meal at IVA Konferenscenter
- 1:00 pm Presentations from President and CEO Peter Nilsson, CFO Fredrik Nilsson, Group's Business Area Presidents, and an overview of Group's sustainability initiatives
- 4:30 pm Conclusion

If you intend to participate physically, you are asked to register at the following link no later than 2:00 pm on May 10, 2023. Please note that a new registration for the May event is required even though you may have registered to attend in March.
