

Registration of trademark BeammWave® in Korea

BeammWave has obtained trademark protection for BeammWave® in Korea.

BeammWave already has trademark protection in China, EU, UK, Taiwan, Japan, and the US. Now Korea has also been approved.

"As a global technology leader in digital beamforming, we need global protection. With 38 patent families and now good brand protection, we have it. North America and Asia are our most important markets and Korea is very interesting", says Stefan Svedberg, CEO at BeammWave.
