HACKSAW GAMING EXPANDS CZECH REPUBLIC REACH WITH SAZKA HRY

Hacksaw Gaming has entered into a partnership with Sazka Hry, a brand of Allwyn Česko, bringing its games to players across the Czech Republic as it continues to build its presence across Central Europe.

With this latest partnership, Hacksaw Gaming is now live with operators representing more than 30% of Czech Republic's locally licensed online gaming market, reflecting continued growth alongside established partners across the country.

Lukáš Bouzek, Head of Casino Product of Sazka Hry:

"Combining the heritage and trust of the Sazka brand with Allwyn's international expertise, Sazka Hry has established itself as a leading force in the Czech online casino market."

"Through a strategy focused on exclusive content, premium player experiences, and long-term innovation, Sazka Hry has built the market's strongest portfolio of proprietary and exclusive games. This unique offering, together with local market expertise and a commitment to responsible gaming, positions Sazka Hry as the benchmark for online casino entertainment in the Czech Republic."

Marcus Cordes, Operational CEO of Hacksaw Gaming:

"Sazka Hry is one of the most established names in Czech gaming, which makes this one of our most significant placements in the region. We're looking forward to building on this partnership in Central Europe."
