CEO Comment

The first quarter of 2022 amounted to yet another revenue record for Raketech Group, much thanks to our recent ATS acquisition that contributed with substantial and important US revenues. Which, during the quarter was neck on neck with Sweden as Raketech's largest market, showcasing a growth of 380% in absolute terms year over year.

Total revenues amounted to EUR 12.7m, which corresponds to a 53% growth. EBITDA subsequently increased with 59% to EUR 5.1m in absolute terms. Sport revenues as share of total amounted to 34.2%, in line with our strategic goals. In absolute terms this corresponds to a growth of 208%, primarily driven by acquisitions.

Margins from our more mature and/or casino dominated markets continued to be comfortably strong, at 47%, but with the sports and investment heavy US market making up almost 20% of the group total we, as expected saw group margins, decline slightly from previous quarter, however increasing year over year, thanks to benefits of scale.

I am furthermore pleased to see that our previous 2021 acquisitions, QM media and Infinileads, targeting markets such as India, the South of Europe and the US continued to show growth in the span of 35-85%. Once again, a proof of our ability to grow acquisitions by exchanging best practices, optimizing commercials, and providing access to central BI/Analytics and tech resources and infrastructure.

During the quarter we have however also seen headwinds, particularly in Finland due to recently imposed regulations on gambling advertisement. Essentially all large operators have chosen to significantly lower or withdraw completely from this market which subsequently has led to a decline in marketing and affiliation investments. Additionally, our largest asset Casinofeber has seen a slight decline, however to a large extent offset by other Swedish assets growing confidently. However, considering it's a large asset it dampened the Swedish growth slightly during the quarter.

Generally speaking Q1 of 2022, Finland and Casinofeber aside, was however a stable quarter in which we saw good performance across the line of affiliate assets. In the US we are continuing to build and invest in mechanisms to add affiliation to non-affiliation assets, and I am glad to conclude that we already have approximately 10% of PicksandParlays revenues coming from affiliation. We look forward to continuing to invest in this area and expect the affiliation share to increase over time as we improve the mechanisms and transfer the learnings to all other assets in the US.

With regards to other growth investments, I am excited to present our latest growth business area, developed inhouse; "Affiliation Cloud". This is a unique single login one-stop-shop, which to the affiliates provides world class competitive commercials, automatically sorted and optimized top lists based on user data, and a performance marketing media library, access to unique site performance and comparison analytics data powered by Raketech's full portfolio of websites across the globe. To the operators the Affiliation Cloud provides easy access to a world of vetted, compliant, and high-quality affiliates, saving both time and money, while improving marketing efficiency.

Currently we are beta testing the Affiliation Cloud, and we expect to roll it out full scale during H2 2022 and we project it to add at least EUR 10m worth of incremental revenues annually within 2 years from launch, at approximately 10-15% margin.

OUTLOOK

April revenues totaled EUR 3.8m which is slightly lower than previous months, driven by a slowdown within our US betting tips and subscriptions offering, expected as an effect of low season for this area.

With relatively stable US operational costs, in particular from our tipster subscription services, we expect margins for this specific market to decrease during Q2 due to seasonality before increasing again during peak season. This in combination with current growth investments will lower margins slightly for the group during Q2. With that said it is important to point out that our full year projections for 2022 with regards to financial performance are unchanged. We are still aiming at a top line revenue in the span of 50-55 million euros and an EBITDA margin between 40 and 44 percent. We believe that it is likely that we land in the higher end of this interval with regards to revenue and in the lower end with regards to EBITDA margin. H2 is traditionally a stronger period and with the World Cup in Football in November we have no reasons to believe otherwise this year.

Finally, I want to emphasize that I am very happy with the position we are in. We have a solid footprint on most important growth markets in the world, the transformation from offline to online within iGaming is quicker than ever, affiliation as a marketing solution is more relevant than ever and we have a great global portfolio of assets and a solid organization in place in the most important growth market in the world, the US. All this, in combination with the launch of Affiliation Cloud, basically making our proprietary technology available for external affiliates, Raketech is in pole position, and I am very much looking forward to the future.

SIGNIFICANT RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The remote gaming industry, where the Group has its main customers, continues to undergo regulation and is therefore subject to political and regulatory risk. The Group operates in the emerging online gaming industry. Although Raketech is a performance marketing company and not an iGaming operator, the legislation concerning online gambling could directly or indirectly affect Raketech's operations. Changes to existing regulations in various jurisdictions might impact the ability for the remote gaming operators to operate and accordingly, revenue streams from these customers may be adversely impacted. The Group may also be exposed to measures brought against customers by public authorities or others, which could be extended to any third-party having abetted the business of such remote gaming operators. The Group monitors regulatory changes within the European market, and also changes in the North American, South American and the Asian markets (including Japan). If any new regulatory regimes come into force, the Group will conform with such requirements by applying for the necessary licenses in the respective jurisdiction. As the Group continues to embark on its growth strategy with the ambition to enhance the global footprint, the exposure to different regulatory frameworks continues to increase.

In addition to the above, the Board of Directors also consider the following risks to be relevant to the Group:

- Credit risk being the risk that customers do not pay for the services rendered.
- Market risk being the risk arising from an adverse movement in foreign exchange rates and interest rates.
- Operational risk which can arise in the SEO environment if search engines, such as Google, change their structure.
- Risk related to the reliance on third-party information, due to limited visibility of the traffic sent to Raketech's customers.

For the principal financial risks and exposures, refer to note 4 'Financial Risk Management' that details the key risk factors including market risk, credit risk, liquidity risk and the Group's approach towards managing these risks

2.2 Critical accounting estimates – impairment assessment

IFRS requires management to undertake an annual test for impairment of intangible assets with an indefinite useful life. Impairment testing is an area involving management judgement. It requires assessments as to whether the carrying value of assets can be supported by the net present value of future cash flows derived from such assets using cash flow projections that have been discounted at an appropriate rate. In calculating the net present value of the future cash flows, certain estimates are required to be made in respect of highly uncertain matters, including management's expectation of growth in revenues. The Group will continue to carry out regular impairment testing and does not consider that the intangible assets as of 31 March 2022 are impaired. Further, IFRS 9 also requires impairment considerations to be performed for trade receivables on an ongoing basis. Judgement in relation to this assessment is subjective. Continued assessments are being made by management on the adequacy of the loss allowance provision relating to the carrying amount of trade receivables.

More information on where critical judgements are generally applied and where estimation uncertainty exists can be found in the Annual Report 2021, Note 3.

2.3 Critical accounting estimates – amounts committed on acquisition

Amounts committed on acquisition consist of contractual obligations resulting from the purchase of intangible assets from third parties. Some of the obligations have a predetermined value, while others include future payments of performance-based amounts. The latter are further referred to as contingent consideration. The fair value is calculated on the expected cash outflow for each purchase agreement. Estimates of future cash flow relating to these contingent considerations are inherently uncertain and are made by management for each asset acquisition based on their knowledge of the industry historical performance and taking into account the economic environment at the time (Note 7).

2.4 Working capital deficiency

During the quarter, Raketech has operated with a with positive operating cash inflows. As at 31 March 2022, the Group is in a net current liability position of EUR 24.3 million, with EUR 2.2 million representing shares that are pending issuance. During 2022, the Group continued to honour all of its existing obligations (including the settlement of earn-outs) and no amounts were deferred beyond the payment terms. Further, the Group expects the working capital deficiency position to continue to improve as a result of the projected quarterly positive cash generation for the rest of the year in combination with considering refinancing options, including the possibility of extending the existing facility amounting to EUR 15 million (Note 6) by another twelve-month term. Discussions with Avida Finans AB, the lender, are under way and are expected to be completed during Q2 2022. The Group has complied with the financial covenants of its credit facility during the reporting period.

3 REVENUES

The Group targets end-users and generates revenue by driving traffic through various channels to generate customer leads for its business partners. All revenue generated via acquisitions and through the different marketing methodologies is categorised as one revenue segment in line with internal management reporting. The Group plans to continue revisiting this assessment taking into account recent acquisitions.

The revenue for Raketech in the respective periods in 2022 and 2021 is further analysed as follows:

4 LEASING

During the fourth quarter of 2021, the Group entered into a new office lease agreement for the US operations. Raketech has applied IFRS 16, Leasing, using the simplified approach. Accordingly, on 8 November a lease liability and a right-of-use asset were recognised.

The liability is initially measured at present value of the remaining lease payments discounted using the Group's incremental borrowing rate. The applied rate of 6%, is the rate at which similar borrowing could be obtained from an independent financier under comparable terms and conditions.

From 9 November 2021, the payments related to leasing have been allocated between the lease liability in the statement of financial position and finance cost in the statement of comprehensive income. The finance cost is allocated to each period during the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability.

5 INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Assets that have been identified as having a definite lifetime value are amortised between 3–5 years. For impairment testing, assets are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or cash-generating units ('CGUs'). The recoverable amount of an asset or CGU is the greater of its value in use and its fair value less costs to sell. Value in use is based on the estimated future cash flows discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset or CGU. Management has concluded that the acquired assets are a single cash-generating unit for the purposes of IAS 36. This conclusion is based on the fact that the Group monitors and manages its operations as one business unit. The Group plans to continue revisiting this assessment taking into account recent acquisitions. For further description, please refer to the Annual Report Note 15.

Carrying amount as at 31 March 2021	70,947	3,014	8,312	832	99	286	83,490

As already disclosed in Note 2, the Group's conclusion is that the recoverable amount is in excess of the intangible assets carrying amount. The assessment includes cash flows projections reflecting actual income over current period, expected cash flows going forward, growth rate and a pre-tax discount rate, which is based on the Group's pre-tax weighted average cost of capital. The directors are satisfied that the judgments made are appropriate to the circumstances relevant to these assets and their cash-generation.

6 BORROWINGS

In July 2021, Raketech entered into an agreement with Avida Finans AB for a one-year revolving credit facility of EUR 15.0 million with an interest rate of 4.25%. The credit facility with Avida Finans AB replaced the previous facility with Swedbank. The credit facility with Avida Finans AB includes an extension option and can thus be renewed for another twelve-month term from its first date of utilisation subject to certain conditions. As of 31 December 2021, the utilised credit amounts to EUR 15.0 million (EUR 0.0 million). The contractual terms of the new revolving credit facility with Avida Finans AB required Raketech Holding PLC to pledge its entire shareholding in Raketech Group Limited to the lender as collateral.

7 AMOUNTS COMMITTED ON ACQUISITION

Amounts committed on acquisitions consist of contractual obligations resulting from acquisitions of intangible assets from third parties. Some of the obligations have a predetermined value, while others include future payments of performance-based amounts. The latter are further referred to as contingent consideration. This contingent consideration is measured at fair value and is included in Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. The fair value is determined on the date of purchase and subsequently, at each reporting date, by calculating the expected cash outflow on each purchase agreement.

The earn-out condition related to Infinileads S.L. is capped up to a maximum of EUR 4 million up until 31 July 2023. Management's best estimate of the total contingent consideration for these assets amounted to EUR 1.7 million as of 31 March 2022.

The earn-out related to A.T.S. Consultants Inc's assets, which is denominated in USD, is capped up to a maximum of EUR 13.2 million up until 31 December 2024. Management's best estimate of the total contingent consideration for these assets amounted to EUR 7.9 million as of 31 March 2022. Included in the additional amounts committed on acquisition, is a deferred consideration of EUR 0.9 million payable by June 2022 and a pending issuance of shares valued at EUR 2.2 million.

The earn-out condition related to Lead Republik Ltd is uncapped and based on its performance up until 28 February 2022. The total contingent consideration for these assets amounted to EUR 0.1 million (EUR 0.5 million) and is payable in the second quarter of 2022.

The earn-out condition relating to Casumba is uncapped, based on future performance up until 31 July 2024. Management's best estimate of the total contingent consideration for these assets amounted to EUR 10.1 million (EUR 8.6 million) net of payments amounting to EUR 2.0 million (EUR 1.3 million) as of 31 March 2022.

The contingent consideration related to Casinofeber is uncapped, based on future performance up until 28 February 2023. Management's best estimate of the total contingent consideration for these assets amounted to EUR 5.1 million (EUR 7.0 million) net of payments amounting to EUR 1.2 million (EUR 1.3 million) as of 31 March 2022.

Other than the increase in the contingent consideration for Lead Republik amounting to EUR 0.1 million which was recognised in the condensed consolidated interim statement of comprehensive income as Revaluation of financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss during 2021, the remaining contingent consideration has been recognised in the condensed consolidated interim statement of financial position according to management's best estimate. Future revisions to the A.T.S. Consultants earn-out will also be reflected within the condensed consolidated interim statement of comprehensive income as a result of this acquisition having been deemed to be business combinations under IFRS 3. The change in estimates according to the table above is related to contingent consideration for Casinofeber, Casumba and Infinileads.

The adjustment to reflect the total impact of discounting in the condensed consolidated interim statement of financial position, amounted to EUR 0.4 million (EUR 0.2 million) by the end of the period. Of the amounts recognised in the condensed consolidated interim statement of financial position at 31 March 2022, EUR 15.2 million is considered to fall due for payment within less than 12 months from the end of the reporting period. The current debt will be mainly settled through expected cash generation during 2022. As at 31 March 2022, amounts committed on acquisition amounted to EUR 28.0 million, of which EUR 0.9 million are fixed, EUR 2.2 million are pending a share issuance and the rest are contingent considerations.
