

TH1NG signs IoT agreement with Mellifiq

Mellifiq, a global supplier of cleantech and environmental solutions, has chosen TH1NG as its provider of IoT communication. The parties have entered into a three-year agreement with an estimated contract value of SEK 550,000.

TH1NG will provide IoT communication services to Mellifiq, encompassing the company's air and water treatment solutions. The agreement signifies continued growth and a strategic partnership in the field of industrial IoT communication – an area where TH1NG anticipates strong expansion ahead.

- "Being entrusted as the provider of IoT communication to a prominent industrial player like Mellifiq is a testament to our innovative and reliable IoT solutions. This is an important deal for us and aligns with our industrial commitment to the smart society. We look forward to supporting Mellifiq in their global technical initiatives," says Klas Westholm, CEO of TH1NG.

- "With TH1NG as a partner, Mellifiq will be able to furthermore develop our IoT solutions by utilizing reliable and advanced technical solutions for our global operations," says Behrang Gilanpour, CTO of Mellifiq.
