

Adam Andersson Appointed VP of Business Development and Sales at BeammWave

BeammWave strengthens its sales organization to support continued growth.

BeammWave is pleased to announce the appointment of Adam Andersson as Vice President of Business Development and Sales. Adam brings over 20 years of international experience in the telecom and semiconductor industries, including 15 years based in Northeast Asia.

With his extensive global network and deep industry expertise, Adam will lead BeammWave's business development efforts, drive sales growth, and support strategic partnerships across key markets. His arrival comes at a time of increasing customer interest, particularly in the Asian region.

"Given the strong customer interest we are currently experiencing in Asia, Adam is a perfect fit, having spent 15 years in Northeast Asia," says Stefan Svedberg, CEO of BeammWave.

Adam's appointment represents a key step in BeammWave's growth strategy as the company expands its global footprint and brings its groundbreaking mmWave technology to new customers worldwide.
