

BIMObject CFO to leave the company

BIMObject today announces that Alexander Dahlquist will leave his role as the company's Chief Financial Officer (CFO). The process to recruit a new CFO has been initiated and Alexander Dahlquist will remain in his role until a replacement has been found.

Carl Silbersky, CEO of BIMObject, states:

"During the last year, BIMObject has carried out a major transformation of our company. Our operating profit and cash flow have improved significantly. BIMObject is now entering the next phase where the pace of transformation will increase even more. We have an ongoing strategic work to build a world class software-as-a-service company, and an active acquisition agenda.

BIMObject's strategy and business plan put new requirements on the organisation and its leaders. We need to add new competencies and expertise. As a consequence of this, BIMObject will initiate the recruitment process for a new CFO.

Alexander Dahlquist has been a very valuable and appreciated colleague. I'd like to thank Alexander for his important contributions to BIMObject and wish him best of luck in his future career."
