

Svedbergs Group reduces CO2 emissions by 14.4% in 2022

Svedbergs Group announces that the Group has reduced its CO2 emissions by 14.4% in the year 2022, compared to 2021 in relation to net sales. This reduction is a result of investments in energy efficiency, transition to renewable energy and optimization of production processes. Through these measures, the Group underlines its commitment to sustainability and its ability to contribute to a more sustainable future and positive changes within the industry.

As part of the Group's goal to become the leading bathroom group in northern Europe, Svedbergs Group is determined to take responsibility for reducing its carbon dioxide emissions and work for sustainable development. By implementing the global Greenhouse Gas Protocol (GHG) reporting standard, which includes scope 1, 2 and 3 emissions, the group has gained an overall picture of its emission sources and taken measures to reduce them.

"We are proud to announce that we have reduced our CO2 emissions by 14.4% in 2022. This is an important achievement and a step forward in our efforts to combat climate change," says Per-Arne Andersson, CEO for Svedbergs Group. "We are committed to continuing our work to reduce our climate impact and create a more sustainable future for our stakeholders and society at large."

By implementing innovative solutions and collaborating with its stakeholders, the Group strives to become a pioneer in the field of sustainability. Svedbergs Group aims to reduce its CO2 emissions by 50% by 2030.

About us

Svedbergs Group is a long-term investor in Europe's strongest independent companies that design, manufacture and market sustainable bathroom products and services.

We are growing through organic growth and acquisitions that complement and strengthen our group through new product categories, geographic spread and new knowledge in marketing, innovation and sustainability.

We create value by sharing each company's unique expertise with the rest of the group, and we care about maintaining the entrepreneurial drive and commitment of the companies. We call this cooperation without confusion.
