Konark Modi joins the board of directors of Desenio Group

Konark Modi joins the board of Directors of Desenio Group AB as per March 31, 2026. Konark Modi is a seasoned technology professional who has held leading managerial roles at internet search firm Cliqz - now part of Brave - as well as HolidayCheck AG, one of Europe's leading online travel operators.

” The way we work, discover, and buy is changing. Technology is reshaping not just how consumers behave, but how companies build, decide, and compete. Desenio has built something rare: a strong brand with a distinctive aesthetic identity and a loyal customer base across markets. I’m excited to join the board and support the company in strengthening demand capture and operating with greater efficiency as it enters its next phase of growth”, says Konark Modi.

Chairman of the board, Martin Weiss: “We are excited to have Konark Modi join us at Desenio Group. His deep technology expertise and demonstrated success in bringing business excellence to e-commerce companies made him an obvious choice.”

The Board of Desenio Group AB is now complete, consisting of four external board members.
