

QleanAir announces two major orders from the IT and telecom industry in Japan

QleanAir AB (publ), the premium supplier of solutions for clean indoor air, announces two major orders from companies in the IT and telecom industries in Japan. The orders consist of rental contracts for a total of 62 mobile air cleaners.

The customers are both based in Tokyo and will use the air cleaners in their office spaces, lounge environments and lunchrooms. The goal is to clean the air of viruses, pollen, and other pollutants to reduce the risk of virus spread, allergies and asthma among the staff. The air cleaners will also enable a reduced use of physical dividers and face masks.

- We are proud to be able to contribute to safer and healthier working environments in the Japanese market, and we are happy that we continue to grow our business in Japan, says Christina Lindstedt, CEO at QleanAir.

One order is a three-year rental contract including service with a performance guarantee to a large telecommunications company. Installation of the 27 units of FS 70 HEPA and FS 15 HEPA units will take place in December 2022.

The second order is a five-year rental contract including service with performance guarantee to a large IT company. Installation of the 35 units of FS 30 HEPA and FS 70 HEPA units is planned for May 2023.
