

VALUNO GROUP AB (PUBL) ENTERS INTO PARTNERSHIP WITH GREENMERC AB REGARDING THE QUICKBIT APP

Valuno Group AB (publ) ("Valuno") today announces that the company has entered into a partnership agreement with GreenMerc AB (publ) ("GreenMerc") concerning the operation and development of the Quickbit app.

Under the agreement, the users of the Quickbit app will be transferred to GreenMerc's wholly-owned subsidiary ijort Invest AB, which operates the crypto exchange Trijo and will henceforth be responsible for the app's operation and further development.

The partnership ensures that Quickbit app users regain the functionality that previously disappeared following Intergiro's discontinuation. In addition, users will benefit from an enhanced user experience and expanded features.

"We see this partnership very positively. Being given the opportunity to take over and further develop the Quickbit app is fully in line with our strategy, and we look forward to offering users an even better experience going forward," says Arvid Börje Ramberg", CEO of GreenMerc AB.

"This is an important step for our users, who will now regain requested functionality and also gain access to new improvements. At the same time, the partnership allows us to reduce our costs and focus even more clearly on our core business. We are very pleased to initiate this collaboration together with GreenMerc", says Daniel Sonesson, CEO of Valuno Group AB.
