

Bufab enters framework agreement with Babcock International Group

Bufab is proud to announce the signing of a framework agreement with the international defence, aerospace and security company Babcock International Group (Babcock) for the supply of fasteners and associated C-parts. This agreement marks a significant step forward in strengthening Babcock's supply chain and supporting their operational excellence.

As part of the agreement, Babcock will gain access to Bufab's on-site digital solutions, designed to streamline procurement processes and optimise production flow. These advanced systems will support greater efficiency and responsiveness across Babcock's operations.

The collaboration reflects a shared commitment to innovation, reliability, and long-term value creation.

Scott Wheeler, Managing Director of Bufab UK, commented:

"We are delighted to be working alongside Babcock. This is a significant milestone for the business. It reflects the trust placed in our team and our capabilities.

By integrating our on-site digital solutions, we are not only supplying fasteners and C-parts - we're driving innovation and supporting Babcock's major programmes.

We look forward to a strong and collaborative partnership that delivers real value across Babcock sites."
