

Clavister Signs a Partnership Agreement with Saab

Örnsköldsvik, Sweden - 24 July 2025 - Clavister, a European leader in cybersecurity for mission-critical applications, is pleased to announce a partnership with Saab, the leading Nordics defence and security company, delivering advanced systems and solutions for military and civil applications worldwide. This cooperation aims to enhance Saab's existing cross-domain solutions with cutting-edge firewalls from Clavister.

Saab serves the global market with world-leading products, services and solutions from military defence in all domains to civil security. Saab's market offering is broad, comprising complex systems involving extensive research and development, as well as services with a high degree of repetition.

The cooperation between Saab and Clavister will enhance the capabilities on Saab's existing cross-domain solutions in terms of cybersecurity and cyberdefence. According to analyst Fortune Business Insights, the global cross-domain solution market is expected to reach 5.8 billion USD by 2023, exhibiting a CAGR of 11.5 %.

"Partnering with Clavister empowers fast innovation and a truly unique product solution to make a difference", says Heino Lundgren, CEO of Saab Danmark A/S.

"Cyber threats and hybrid warfare have become part of everyday life. We are proud to become a partner of Saab, working together on new developments and products", says John Vestberg, President and CEO of Clavister.

The cooperation aims to develop next-generation products designed for secure, real-time communication across multiple classified domains – including NATO Restricted and NATO Secret environments.
