

QUICKBIT PROMOTES ITS HEAD OF COMPLIANCE TO HEAD OF LEGAL AND COMPLIANCE

Today, Quickbit announces that Elvira Vänerfors, formerly Head of Compliance, has been promoted to Head of Legal and Compliance. Elvira will remain a part of Quickbit's Group Management Team.

In November 2023, Quickbit strengthened its management team by appointing Elvira Vänerfors as Head of Compliance, having previously served as Senior Compliance Officer & Group MLRO at Quickbit.

Now, Quickbit announces that Elvira is being promoted to Head of Legal and Compliance. This means that, in addition to overseeing Quickbit's compliance efforts and leading the compliance team, Elvira will also be responsible for all regulatory areas and will lead the company's legal team.

"Being part of the journey we are on at Quickbit is incredibly motivating. I have been with Quickbit for quite some time, and regulatory aspects are central to ensuring safe and stable growth. With this expanded responsibility, I see great opportunities to further advance our regulatory work to continue maintaining a top-class standard," says Elvira Vänerfors, Head of Legal and Compliance.

"I am incredibly pleased to announce that Elvira has been promoted to Head of Legal and Compliance. Elvira has been with Quickbit for several years and possesses extensive knowledge of our regulatory work. With her expertise and energy, she has been a fundamental part of the turnaround and pivot the company has undertaken over the past year. I couldn't be more thrilled that Elvira will continue to lead our important regulatory efforts, especially as we approach the implementation of Markets in Crypto Assets," says Daniel Sonesson, CEO of Quickbit.
