

The board of directors of NCAB Group withdraws dividend proposal

The board of directors of NCAB has decided to withdraw the previously announced dividend proposal ahead of the annual general meeting on 8 May 2025. The board of directors therefore proposes that no dividend shall be paid to shareholders for the 2024 financial year and that available profits shall be carried forward.

NCAB remains in a stable financial position. However, in light of increased economic uncertainty following recent events, and as a precautionary measure, the board of directors considers it justified to withdraw the dividend proposal in order to strengthen the company's financial standing and flexibility moving forward.
