

Däckia, part of Citira, awarded national tire service agreement

Citira's Swedish tire service chain Däckia has been awarded a national framework agreement with Attendo Sweden, under which it will serve as Attendo's prioritized provider for comprehensive tire services across the country.

Attendo, a leading care provider in Sweden listed on NasdaqOMX, holds a fleet of approximately 900 vehicles. Under the new agreement, Däckia will now assume full responsibility for tire-related services going forward, bringing greater consistency and efficiency to Attendo's operations.

The agreement encompasses a complete suite of services, including:

- Seasonal tire change, washing, and storage
- All related tire maintenance and service operations
- Delivery of replacement tires and full winter wheel packages for new vehicles

"We're very proud to be chosen as Attendo's tire service partner," said Adam Ericsson, Key Account Manager at Däckia, part of Citira. "This agreement is the result of close collaboration and a shared commitment to quality and reliability. Our nationwide network and strong local presence mean we can support Attendo's operations seamlessly — ensuring their vehicles are always ready to serve the people who depend on them."

"This agreement marks an important step forward for Däckia and Citira," said David Boman, CEO of Citira. "It reflects the strength of our service offering and our ability to deliver reliable, convenient tire management solutions at scale. We're proud to support Attendo's operations and help keep their fleet moving safely and efficiently."
